Micwil Appoints Prestige United States Distributor for ErgoVerse CASSIOPEIA Desktop Sit-Stand Retrofit

Micwil Group of Companies, worldwide distributor and manufacturer's representative for ErgoVerse Ergonomics, has appointed Prestige International as exclusive distributor of the CASSIOPEIA Desktop Sit-Stand Retrofit in the United States.

" ErgoVerse Ergonomics launched a suite of products in the summer of 2017, of which the CASSIOPEIA is a game changer," says Michael Craggs, CEO of Micwil. " The CASSIOPEIA is the first Desktop Sit-Stand Retrofit designed to work with any ergonomic keyboard or mouse on the market. Recognizing Prestige's years of expertise and experience in ergonomic distribution in the United States, we have appointed them the exclusive distributor. "

The CASSIOPEIA by ErgoVerse distinguishes itself from other desktop converters by maximizing usable worksurface space while using a small footprint on the desktop. The X-Style Dual Lift Design provides vertical movement without forcing the user back from their desk like other Z-Style mechanisms on the market. With 15 reproducible effortless settings, users can quickly and easily adjust between their sitting and desired standing configuration.

" We are excited to be able to offer a sit-stand solution which is fully compatible with all of our other product lines," Marc Bruh, CEO of Prestige said. " We look forward to working with ErgoVerse to support their ever-expanding lineup of ergonomic products in the US market."
