

Luxo Appoints Prestige International Distributor for Task Lights to Ergonomic Customers

Luxo, the global manufacturer of energy-efficient workspace lighting, has appointed Prestige International as exclusive distributor of its task lights to ergonomic value-added retailers/distributors in the United States.

“We are excited about our partnership with Prestige. Marc and his team have established strong and long-standing relationships with the ergonomic community including ergonomic retailers and corporate ergonomists,” said Sam Gumins, President & CEO of Luxo. “With Prestige as a partner, Luxo looks forward to deepening its ties with those who appreciate task lighting as an important ergonomic consideration.”

Luxo’s award-winning task lights are designed specifically for the ergonomic workspace. With a variety of shade designs, arm lengths, mounting options and functionality, Luxo’s task lights allow for individual user control over a workspace and in turn increase workplace productivity and employee satisfaction.

“We are excited to join with Luxo and continue to provide the highest quality products and services to those in the ergonomic community,” Marc Bruh, CEO of Prestige said. “Together with Luxo we look forward to reinforcing how the best task lighting truly completes an ergonomic workspace.”
